Principal Investment Strategies and Risks of Investing in the Fund

The fund seeks long-term growth of capital. The fund normally invests at least 65% of total assets in common stocks of companies with medium market capitalizations. The fund may potentially invest in companies with smaller or larger market capitalizations. The fund may invest in securities of domestic and foreign issuers. The fund seeks to invest in mid cap companies with strong growth prospects at reasonable valuations which offer the potential for long-term growth of principal. The fund emphasizes fundamental, bottom up research and frequent company contact.

The fund's total return will fluctuate over a wide range, consistent with its reliance on investing in stocks. Investors in the fund should have a long-term investment horizon. The fund is not a complete investment program and returns may lag the returns of a balanced portfolio with comparable risk. The fund's emphasis on mid-cap growth stocks may cause it to lag the returns of the broad U.S. stock market. The fund's strategy for outperforming its benchmark may cause it to lag the benchmark as the strategy relies on predictions and incurring trading costs through security turnover. Your investment in the fund is not a bank deposit and is not insured or guaranteed by the F.D.I.C. or any other government entity. It is possible to lose money investing in the fund and returns may not keep pace with inflation.
